

Did you know that with the Canada child benefit, you may receive up to $6,400 per child?

You could also be eligible for other benefits and credits!

To find out more, come to an information session held by the Canada Revenue Agency

	May 15th, 2017 @ 6:00 PM
	Chateh Health Centre

Representatives from the Canada Revenue Agency will be presenting valuable information on filing an income tax return and accessing benefits and credits.

If you need help with your income tax and benefit return and you have a modest income and a simple tax situation, volunteers from the Community Volunteer Income Tax Program may be able to file your income tax and benefit return for free. Come join us to find out more!
